

Carolyn Dow Tyler (American, 1867 - 1951)

Sky Ride from the Hyde Park Hotel (The 1933 Chicago Worlds Fair, The Century of Progress), 1933

Watercolor on pencil

7 3/4 x 11 1/2 inches (framed 16 x 20 1/2 inches)

Signed and dated Carolyn D. Tyler 1933, lower left; titled on reverse.

#7229

Carolyn Dow Tyler

Carolyn Dow Tyler was born in Chicago in 1867. She studied at the Art Institute of Chicago with famed Art Nouveau painter, Alphonse Mucha. Tyler became a member of the Chicago Society of Artists and exhibited at the Annual Exhibitions of the Art Institute of Chicago. She became best known for her many portrait miniatures. Her work can be found in the collections of the Illinois State Museum, Springfield, IL and the Smithsonian Museum of American Art, Washington, D.C. Tyler died in Evanston, IL in 1951.